

THE GREAT COMMISSION

THE GREAT COMMISSION

MARK 16:9-20

"Go into all the world and proclaim the gospel to the whole creation."

- Mark 16:15

Although a majority of the New Testament scholars believe Mark 16:9-20 is not part of the original manuscript, the events cited in this passage are consistent with the rest of Scripture.

Thus, there are still valuable lessons to be learned particularly about getting involved in the Great Commission.

The Problem of Unbelief.

During the first Resurrection Jesus appeared to Mary Magdalene and then to two disciples walking on Emmaus Road. Both Mary and the two disciples went and reported to the rest of the disciples that Jesus was alive, but they did not believe. In the evening, Jesus personally appeared to the Eleven and rebuked them for their unbelief and hardened hearts (16:9-14; Luke 24:13-35)!

The Power of the Gospel. Jesus commissioned the disciples to go into all the world and preach the gospel to all mankind. The gospel is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes. Supernatural signs have no power to transform hearts, but at times God uses them to shatter the walls of the hardened hearts of man so they will believe (16:15-18; 28:19-20a; Romans 1:16; Acts

OUR TASK IS TO PRAY FOR DIVINE APPOINTMENTS, FAITHFULLY SHARE THE GOSPEL, AND TRUST CHRIST WILL BREAK WALLS OF BARRIER AND CHANGE THE HEARTS OF PEOPLE.
